Infill Conditional Sentences – First, Second and Third

If I had more money, ...

If it's sunny, ...

If I met Brad Pitt, ...

If I hadn't had so much beer last night, ...

I will get a better job ...

If I learn English, I'll …

If I won the lottery, …

If I play tennis tomorrow, …

If I had a boyfriend, …

I would buy more clothes …

I would go to London …

If I had tried harder, …

I'd take the new job …

If you are hungry, …

If I don't feel well tomorrow, …

What would you have done…?

If it were cheaper, …

If we had gone by bus, …

If you don't hurry, …

If I knew the answer, …

If I could, …

I will go to see Fernando today…

If I had had a car, …