

And, but and because

Take turns to continue these sentences using the conjunctions and, but and because. For example:

I'm thirsty....

I'm thirsty and I'm going to get a glass of water.

I'm thirsty but I can't get a glass of water as I'm in a meeting.

I'm thirsty because I've been playing tennis.

Now you try:

1. The coffee is good...
2. Rosy is fed up...
3. They got lost...
4. My boss is nice...
5. He married Rosy...
6. I'm learning Russian...
7. Rosy bought a car...
8. Felipe is sick...
9. I'm stressed out...
10. They went to Paris...
11. I went to the store...
12. Felipe is tired...
13. I bought a new jacket...
14. This wine is lovely...
15. I'm happy...
16. The weather is beautiful today...
17. She has a lot of work...
18. He's got a new dog...
19. Rosy's just moved house...
20. Felipe is reading a great book...
21. I am studying really hard...
22. I'm hungry...
23. Felipe always listens to reggaeton...
24. Ignacio plays lol...
25. Rosy did well in her math test...
26. Santi wants the new Xbox...
27. Felipe is watching a new series on Netflix...
28. Emi has a new video on TikTok...