

Conjunctions worksheet

Join the sentence groups using suitable conjunctions. There might be more than one possibility and you can use the same conjunction more than once, but take care not to change the meaning of the sentences.

Both Because And Or else Neither Nor But Since When

1. He passed the test. He had a good teacher.
2. I do not eat meat. I do not eat fish.
3. She is poor. She is happy.
4. I can't sing. I can't dance.
5. I was tired. I went on working.
6. Jane is an introvert. Alice is an introvert. They get along very well.
7. The car was badly damaged in the accident. It needs to be repaired.
8. We felt bored. We went to the cinema to relieve our boredom.
9. Felipe must give in. He must also apologize. Valentina will not forgive him otherwise.
10. The children were playing hide and seek. James was hiding in the garden. Suddenly the rain started pouring down.

Answers

1. He passed the test because he had a good teacher.
2. I eat neither meat nor fish.
3. She is poor but happy.
4. I can neither sing nor dance.
5. I was tired but I went on working.
6. Both Jane and Alice are introverts and get along very well.
7. Since the car was badly damaged in the accident, it needs to be repaired.
8. We felt bored and went to the movies to relieve our boredom.
9. Felipe must give in and apologize or else Valentina will not forgive him.
10. The children were playing hide and seek and James was hiding in the garden when the rain started pouring down.