

Exercise No. 2 - Phrasal Verbs

a. We've already looked at these commonly used phrasal verbs. Now let's see if you can remember what they all mean:

1. To meet someone by chance.		a. fall for
2. To flirt with someone.		b. come over / look in on / pop in / drop in
3. To meet a friend and talk about their news.		c. find out
4. To invite somebody to go out with you.		d. get through
5. To have a fight with someone.		e. get together with / hang out
6. To discover personal information about someone.		f. get on with / get along with / get on well
7. To visit someone casually.		g. look after / take care of
8. When you can / can't make someone understand what you are saying.		h. go out with
9. When you make a commitment that you can't change.		i. catch up with
10. To not like someone at first then to start to like them.		j. go off
11. To heal after ending a relationship.		k. get over
12. To like someone then change your mind.		l. grow on / warm up to
13. To be responsible for someone, often a child.		m. ask out
14. To really like someone.		n. bump into / run into / run across
15. To spend time with friends / family.		o. chat up
16. To date someone.		p. get out of
17. To have a good relationship.		q. fall out with
18. To be united with someone and support them with the same ideas.		r. pull together

b. If there were any you weren't sure of or got wrong then now use them again in your own sentences to make sure you can remember what they mean: