

Exercise No. 2 – At a Restaurant Phrasal Verbs

a. We've already looked at these commonly used phrasal verbs that are used when we are at a restaurant. Now let's see if you can remember what they all mean:

1. To eat at home rather than go to a restaurant.		a. Dine out.
2. To be seated at a table.		b. Plate up / fill up.
3. Fine dining at an expensive restaurant.		c. Eat up / tuck into.
4. To not eat everything on your plate, just a little.		d. Polish off.
5. To eat too much.		e. Live on.
6. To re-heat your food.		f. Snack on.
7. To eat something light apart from regular meals.		g. Splash out.
8. To fill your plate, often from a buffet.		h. Bolt / wolf down.
9. To reduce the quantity of food or a certain type of food.		i. Go off.
10. To eat too fast.		j. Pick at.
11. To go to a restaurant.		k. Sit down.
12. To love a certain type or a particular food.		l. Order in.
13. When food goes bad.		m. Warm up.
14. To order food to be delivered to your house.		n. Take away
15. To take food from a restaurant to your house and eat it there.		o. Cut down.
16. To pay the bill for everyone.		p. Run up.
17. To finish the last bite of food.		q. Pick up.
18. To have a very big bill.		r. Pig out (on).
19. To be told to start eating.		s. Eat in.
20. To return food to the kitchen because there's something wrong with it.		t. Take out.
21. To invite someone for dinner, not to necessarily pay the bill.		u. Take back.

b. If there were any you weren't sure of, or got wrong, then now use them again in your own sentences to make sure you can remember what they mean: