

General:	Prepositions:	Quantifiers	Questions
The picture shows a typical business meeting. I can see that there are 7 people at the meeting. There are 4 women and 3 men. Everyone is wearing formal clothes. Two of the men are wearing ties. The people at the meeting seem to be paying attention. They look like they are having fun. The man in the middle is the oldest person at the meeting. Maybe he is the boss. It looks like the oldest woman is doing a presentation. Maybe she is trying to sell the company something. They look like they are having fun.	There are 2 cups on the table. There is also a glass and a bottle of water. There are 2 lap tops on the table too. Just one of them is being used. Two of the women have their hair up. The man to the right of the woman on the right has a beard. He is also not wearing a tie. The people are at work. I can see that the people are sitting around a table. They are in a meeting room.	There are many things on the table. It looks like they have been talking a long time.	a. General: What are they doing? What are they wearing? Where are they? b. Prompt: How many meetings do you go to during a typical week? Why can meetings be a waste of time? How can we make meetings more productive? What type of clothes do you have to wear for work?