

Form the Question

Look at the following topics and think of some interesting questions to ask people on the following topics. You can use any type of question and any tense. For example:

“Do you have a favourite advertisement?”

“Do you think there should be a watershed for adverts?”

“Tell me about some advertisements that have had an effect on you?”

Now it's your turn. Take each of the subjects and form as many questions as you can for each of the topics:

- Advertising
- The environment
- Food
- Health
- Education
- Sport
- Modern Technology
- Family life / Relationships
- Media and Communication
- Travel and Tourism.