

Reference list of typical verbs followed by a gerund. Verbs with an * can also be followed by infinitives:

admit	consider	hate	postpone	resist advise*	continue*	help*	practice	risk allow*	delay	imagine	prefer*	start* anticipate	deny	involve	quit	stop* appreciate	discuss	keep	recall	suggest avoid	dislike	like*	recollect	tolerate begin*	enjoy	love*	recommend	try* can't bear*	fancy	mention	regret*	understand can't help	finish	mind	reject	waste can't stand*	forget*	miss	remember*	time/money complete	go	permit	resent

Reference list of typical verbs followed immediately by an infinitive:

afford	choose	fail	offer	threaten agree	claim	happen	plan	volunteer aim	condescend	help	prepare	wait appear	consent	hesitate	pretend	want arrange	dare	hope	proceed	wish ask	decide	intend	promise	would hate attempt	demand	learn	refuse	would like
be able	deserve	manage	seem	would love beg	endeavour	mean	struggle care	expect	need	swear

Reference list of typical verbs followed by a (pro)noun + an infinitive:

allow	convince	force	order	teach ask	dare	hire	permit	tell beg	encourage	instruct	persuade	urge cause	expect	invite	remind	want challenge	forbid	need	require	warn

Some common adjectives followed by infinitives:

glad to	disappointed to	hesitant to happy to	proud to	reluctant to pleased to	ashamed to	afraid to delighted to	ready to	likely to content to	prepared to	certain to relieved to	anxious to	surprised to lucky to	eager to	amazed to fortunate to	willing to	astonished to sorry to	motivated to	shocked to sad to	determined to upset to	careful to

Reference list of adjective + preposition combinations followed by gerunds:

accustomed to
addicted to
afraid of
anxious about
bored of
capable of
committed to concerned about
content with dedicated to
devoted to

disappointed with
discouraged by
excited about
famous for
fond of
frightened of
guilty of
happy about
interested in
involved in
known for

opposed to proud of remembered for responsible for scared of
terrified of
think about
tired from tired of
worried about