

Intensifiers

a. Intensifiers

Look at these sentences. Using intensifiers (very, really, etc.) try and make them stronger. For example:

I like chocolate. = I really like chocolate.

1. Diego is ugly.
2. Santiago is a polluted city.
3. Chile is an expensive country.
4. Sarah is a nice girl.
5. The market was dirty.
6. That is a good book.
7. The flight to Rome was delayed.
8. Fernando is handsome.
9. That is a nice dress.
10. Their new apartment is small.
11. Felipe is hungry.
12. It is a nice day.
13. Rodrigo is a good student.
14. The meeting was interesting.
15. Juan is tall.
16. Esteban is smart.
17. The meal was good.
18. Class was boring.
19. His new car is amazing.
20. Rosy's baby is very cute.

b. Strong adjectives:

Now taking the same sentences. Try and change them, where possible, using a strong adjective. For example:

I like chocolate. = I love chocolate.

= Chocolate is amazing.