

Joining Sentences Together

Look at the following sentences:

“Rosy got out of bed. Before that she drank a cup of coffee.”

Using the past perfect, connect the sentences together. For example:

“When Rosy had drunk a cup of coffee she got out of bed.”

Try these:

I arrived at work. Before that I ate breakfast.

I left the house. Before that I turned off the lights.

I came to this class. Before that I didn't study English.

I had a test. Before that I reviewed all my notes.

She walked out when I came into the room.
