

Nouns

This is a very important group of words. We use them to talk about things. So, it is possible for a noun to express a person, place, object, feeling, idea, or quality.

Example: Sally and her dog are very nice.

In this example, "Sally" and "dog" are nouns because they are both things.

Underline the nouns in the following sentences:

1. Andrew's new house is in Paris.
2. His car is old.
3. When will the train arrive?
4. Excitement is in the air.
5. Yesterday was the hottest day of the year.
6. Happiness is the best feeling.
7. Diana, Anthea, and Lou are my best friends.
8. Evolution is important to our understanding of the world.
9. My sister Liz is a professional footballer.
10. Is it time to go yet?
