

Quantifiers

a. Look at the following sentences. Are they right or wrong? If you think it's wrong, then correct it:

There's a lot of space for everyone to work.

There are any comfortable chairs.

There's some natural light.

There's many fresh air.

There are much plants.

There are lots of people to talk to.

There is too many noise.

There is a lot of time to do my work.

There's some valuable equipment.

There are many places to eat lunch nearby.

b. Now think about Santiago. Using quantifiers describe Santiago:

Cinemas

Parks

Shops & Malls

Pollution

Good restaurants

Public transportation

Sports facilities

Cycle paths

Cultural activities

Traffic

Street performers

Stray dogs

Bars

Museums

Universities

Cafés