

Relationship / Life Phrasal Verbs

- a. Look at these commonly used phrasal verbs. First, check to make sure you understand what they all mean:

ask out
bump into/ run into / run across chat up
come over / look in on / pop in / drop in catch up with fall for fall out with
find out
get through
get together with / hang out
get out of
get on with / get along with / get on well
grow on /warm up to get over
go off
go out with
look after / take care of

let up
let down
make up
move in / out
pick up
pull together put off
screwed up
snow under split up / break up
sign up
stir up
take out
turn over
tell off
turn down
turn on
turn off
put up
put down
work out
walk out on

- b. Now try and use these phrasal verbs in your own sentences. For example: I've really screwed up at work. I think I might get sacked.
She walked out on Rafa, everyone is so surprised.