Modals

Using words like 'have to', 'must', 'should', 'can', etc., create as many sentences as you can to say how you should behave in the following places. For example, "in a restaurant.":

> You have to pay your bill.
> You mustn't smoke.
> You should not speak too loudly.
> You can order whatever you want if you have enough money.
> You don't have to wash the dishes after you've finished eating.
> You will have a good time if you go with your friends.
> You may tip the waiter.
> You could take a taxi if you want to drink alcohol.
> You might want to read a review of the place before you go.

Now it's your turn. Look at the situations below and think of sentences you could use. Try and come up with as many examples as you can:

At a football game.

In a pub.

In a bank.

On an escalator.

At a petrol station.

On a bus.

On an airplane.

In a queue.

At a dinner party.

At the cinema.

On a motorbike.

At a wedding.

In an exam.

At a funeral.

At the doctors.

Meeting someone for the first time.

In a meeting with your boss.

In the park.

In changing rooms in a store.

Eating spaghetti.

Shopping at the supermarket.

Driving a car.

Studying in the library at college.

Meeting your boyfriend / girlfriend's family for the first time.

Clearing immigration when you arrive in a new country.

Checking into a hotel.

Spending time with your parents.

At the beach.