

Quantifiers

Are these sentences right or wrong? Correct them if you think they are wrong:

a. At the gym:

1. There are much people trying to get fit.
2. There are some fitness trainers there who can help you.
3. There isn't any chocolate or Coca-Cola in the vending machines.
4. You might want to take a little money with you to buy a drink after you've exercised.
5. There are many different types of machines that you can use.
6. There are few showers for you to use after you've exercised so you don't have to wait for long.
7. There is too much noise from the TV screens and videos which is distracting.
8. There are little people at the gym if you go late at night.
9. Once you've paid the membership, you need little money to use the gym regularly.
10. There are not lots of lockers to keep your personal belongings safe which is a problem.

b. At the airport:

1. There are often lots of people at the check in desks.
2. There are too much people trying to get their luggage off the carousel.
3. There are many security measures in place at airports.
4. Queues are always present when you clear immigration as there are too few officers on duty.
5. You need few time to check in for an international flight.
6. There are too little taxis when you want to exit the airport, so you always have to wait.
7. There isn't any need to make a reservation for a transfer, there are always lots of vans free.
8. There are some duty free shops while you wait for your flight.
9. You always need much time to find your gate.
10. You often need to have lots of documents to fly internationally.