

Right or Wrong – Verb to be – Past Simple (Was or Were)

Jorge was late for the party.

They wasn't at the meeting this morning.

Felipe where tired last night.

We weren't at the gym on Tuesday.

Sally were in London last summer.

I were busy last week.

Fiona wasn't at the cinema last night.

Francisca did not was to eat supper last night.

Were George happy to go to the zoo?

Were you angry yesterday with Nicolas?

She weren't in Talca last week.

Francisco was on holiday all spring.

It weren't cold this morning.

Sally and Bren weren't at the meeting this morning.

Where was you last night?

When born your son?

They were at home all evening.

The cat were on the roof.

Why were the children at the park yesterday?

Were Sole in the laboratory this morning?

Was it raining much during the winter this year?

What was the date yesterday?

Why was the light not switched off?

How much was your new car?