

Simple Future – Right or Wrong

Look at the sentences below and decide if the two main forms of the simple future have been used correctly. If you think the sentence is incorrect, then correct it:

1. Dave is going to be in Greece on Monday. His flight from London leaves at 6am.
2. Where will you be on Tuesday at 3pm?
3. Who is that at the door? I'm going to answer it.
4. The doctor said I will know the result on Wednesday at 3pm next week.
5. Will you have time to help me tomorrow?
6. The window cleaner won't come at 8 tomorrow as rain has been forecast.
7. I think she will be in London next week.
8. Why is Philip getting a passport? He will live in Spain for a year.
9. I think the film is going to be a big success.
10. At this moment, Jorge doesn't know where he will be on Wednesday.
11. At 8.00 a.m. on Thursday, Suzy is going to be in Belgium as her flight lands in Bruges at 7 a.m.
12. Next summer, I am going to travel to Brazil. My sister lives there and she bought me a plane ticket for my birthday.
13. It's getting cold. I am going to take my coat!
14. Are you going to the cinema? Wait for me. I will go with you!
15. Jane won't study medicine next year. She's taking a break to learn French and so she's going to live in Paris.
16. Experts say the Earth will suffer seriously if we continue polluting.
17. I can't hear the TV. Wait a moment and I'll turn up the volume for you.
18. 3.5 billion people will be without access to drinking water in 2025 according to experts in population growth.
19. I am going to visit Europe in September to attend a family wedding.
20. I think I am going to fly with British Airways when I go to Europe.