

Past simple – Pronunciation

Jack barked loudly at the workmen.

He crossed the road to go to the bank.

Lucy opened the door.

They moved house twice last year.

She played a new song on her guitar.

Diana cleaned the house on Saturday afternoon.

Felipe picked up Rosy from the airport.

We used up all the stationery supplies in the cupboard.

She presented her findings to the Board of Directors.

Felipe uploaded some pictures onto Instagram.

José shopped all afternoon at the mall.

He switched off his pc and went home.

They studied really hard at the library yesterday.

Scotty walked Jack on the beach.

My dad dropped me off at the railway station to catch my train.

My nieces packed their bags for their trip to Paris.

Nicky painted a beautiful new painting at the weekend.

He turned up the volume on his speakers to get the party going.

The boss logged on to his pc very late yesterday.

I missed the last bus home and had to take a taxi instead.

Sarah polished all her furniture before she mopped the floor.