Reading Comprehension: "Was-Were Story"

Last week, there was a really, bad day. It was Monday. Usually, there are 25 students in my class, but that day, there were only 5 people!

What happened last week?
What day was it?
How many people were in class?

It wasn't warm. In fact, it was really cold. It was raining a lot. It was dark and grey outside. There wasn't any sunshine.

Was it warm or cool?
Was it raining?
What colour was the sky?
Was there any sunshine?

I think the students weren't at school because they were sick. They were at home. Maybe they were in bed.

Why weren't the students at school?
Where were they?

Mr. Brown is our teacher. He is always at school. He is never at home on a Monday. Last Monday was no different. He was not in bed. He was in the classroom, and he was cold!

What is the name of the teacher?
Where was he last Monday?
Was he hot or cold?

Why was he so cold? That's a very good question. He was cold because the heater in the school was broken. It was freezing. The whole school was like a refrigerator. Our classroom was like a freezer! And poor Mr. Brown was like ice!

Why was Mr Brown cold?
What happened to the heating system in the school?
What was the temperature in the classroom like?

The next few days were much warmer. The heater was fixed on Tuesday, so everything was ok. There were 25 students, not only 5. But where was Mr. Brown? He wasn't there. He was at home, sick in bed!

Were the next few day's warmer or the same?
When did the heater get fixed?
How many students came to school?
Where was Mr Brown?
