

Create the Question – Present Simple

Look at the following answers to questions. There is a combination of the verb 'to be' and other verbs in the present simple. Remember the following:

Verb to be:	Other verbs (play, talk, go, have, etc.)
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. In questions, never use the verb 'to be' with an auxiliary (do, does).</li><li>2. Never use the verb 'to be' with other verbs.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. In questions, always use an auxiliary (do, does, can, etc.,) for verbs other than the verb 'to be'.</li><li>2. When you use an auxiliary, never use the verb + 's'. It is always in the original form.</li><li>3. Remember the auxiliary is always in the question but never in the answer apart from Yes / No questions.</li></ol>
