

The Opposite - Past Simple Verb 'to be'

Look at the following sentences and either change it to a positive or negative sentence using the past tense of the verb to be. Example:

I was happy. I wasn't happy.

You weren't angry. You were angry.

1. It wasn't cold.
2. I wasn't sad.
3. You were tired.
4. The cow was in the field.
5. He was bored.
6. They weren't in class.
7. They were at a party.
8. Raul wasn't listening.
9. It wasn't windy.
10. They were starving.
11. She wasn't in Talca last week.
12. The horse was in the stable.
13. He was in a meeting.
14. She was in Rome last summer.
15. It was wet.
16. We weren't at work.
17. We were at the pool.
18. Juan was visiting Arica.
19. Maico wasn't at the clinic.
20. The parrot was in the jungle.
21. Pamela wasn't in Lima.
22. They weren't at the beach.
23. The elephant was in the zoo.
24. They weren't in the park.
25. Eduardo was in Buin.
26. Carlos was busy.
27. The children were at the cinema.
28. He was at the mall.
29. They were at a meeting.
30. You weren't very happy.