

Why would a person do this?

- a. Three men risked their lives by jumping into a swollen river to save a drowning dog.
- b. A brilliant student downloaded essays from the Internet and presented them as his own work. The student was found out and was thrown out of college.
- c. A 42-year-old woman won $10m on the lottery. She immediately donated all her winnings to various charities and lived in relative poverty for the rest of her life.
- d. A man committed suicide by deliberately crashing the car he was driving into a line of people at a bus stop. He killed 11 other people at the same time.
- e. A 70-year-old man was diagnosed with cancer. He continued to smoke 15 cigarettes a day, even though he had been told by his doctor that continuing to smoke greatly increased his chances of dying.
- f. A woman walked into a hospital and took a newborn baby that was not her own.
- g. A man claimed that he had been kidnapped by aliens and taken to another planet in a different galaxy.
- h. A famous football player on a salary of $50k a week accepted financial bribes from a bookmaker to fix the results of certain matches.