

Work and Job

Work	Job
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A verb and an uncountable noun for the activities you do.• An activity involving effort and energy to achieve a particular goal.• What we do to earn money, "I work for Sony."• Very general meaning for the activities you do.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A countable noun.• Very specific meaning – your position.• The name for the 'work' you do. Your particular employment role or position – a chef, a teacher.• What do you do?

Skills:

1. What is the best _____ you have ever had? = very specific meaning.
2. Where do you _____? = the location of where you do the activity.
3. Do you like your _____? = specific meaning – your position.
4. I hate Friday's. I always have a lot of _____ to do? = the activity
5. Is your _____ really difficult? = specific meaning related to your position.
6. Who do you _____ for? = the company that pays you for the activity.
7. What is your _____? = specific, your actual position.
8. I have so much _____ on at the moment. It's really hard. I have so many _____ to do. = 1 is the activity; 2 the specific tasks. Look as well at the use of quantifiers.