

...but in fact...

Using words like look, seem, taste or feel add a beginning to each of these sentences. If you can't come up with a suitable beginning then try with other ideas!

For example:

... but in fact he's quite young. He looks old, but in fact he's quite young.

1. ... but in fact it's good for you.
2. ... but in fact he's a sweetheart really.
3. ... but in fact my temperature is normal.
4. ... but in fact cats love it.
5. ... but in fact it tastes ok.
6. ... but in fact it's extremely dangerous.
7. ... but in fact she's quite nice.
8. ... but in fact she's not really.
9. ... but in fact he looks calm and relaxed.
10. ... but in fact it really goes fast.
11. ... but in fact I never go to the dentist.
12. ... but in fact it is quite disgusting.
13. ... but in fact it is really cold today.
14. ... but in fact the quiz was hard.
15. ... but in fact she's quite poor.
16. ... but in fact I slept well last night.
17. ... but in fact I've been exercising a lot.
18. ... but in fact I've been using a new hairdresser.
19. ... but in fact she's studied a lot.
20. ... but in fact they've bought a brand new car.